

ATTACHMENT C

Current and Future Waste Reduction Infrastructure

Current Facilities	Infrastructure ownership	Operations	Other partners	Diversion
Boulder County Recycling Center	Boulder County	Customers through collection fees	Eco-Cycle operates under contract to Boulder County	21%
Household Hazardous Waste Facility	Boulder County ¹	Boulder County and Broomfield municipalities, based on each community's usage	Western Disposal land ²	.03%
Yard Waste Drop-off Center	City of Boulder	City and county subsidize their community's usage	Western Disposal donated land	3.5%
Wood Waste Drop-off Center	City of Boulder	City and county subsidize their community's usage	Western Disposal donated land	.8%
City of Boulder/ Eco-Cycle CHaRM	City of Boulder land ³	City of Boulder ⁴ and user fees	Eco-Cycle operates, under contract to the city	.4%
Residential Composting facility	Western Disposal	Customers through collection fees	City of Boulder permit & regulations	1.6% ⁵
ReSource	Center for Resource Conservation	Self-supporting	Western Disposal donated land	.3%
Western Disposal Transfer Station	Western Disposal	Western Disposal	Western Disposal	1.4%
Other: University of Colorado Recycling, Front Range Construction & Demolition (C&D) facilities	CU and private companies	Self-supporting	CU and private companies	2.2%
Total citywide diversion				31%

Future waste reduction potential
Residential curbside composting collection	Trash haulers	Customers through collection fees	Trash haulers	7-10%
Expanded Hazardous Material Management facility	Boulder County ¹	Boulder County and Broomfield municipalities, based on each community's usage and businesses will pay full cost plus an additional surcharge		1%
Commercial composting facility	Boulder County ⁶	Unknown		5-20%
C & D facility	Boulder County ⁶	Unknown		5-20%
Expanded CHaRM	City Boulder	Eco-Cycle	City of Boulder	1%
Expanded ReSource	City Boulder	CRC	City of Boulder	1%
Total new diversion				53%

¹ New facility infrastructure costs will be shared between Boulder County municipalities and Broomfield

² New facility will be on Boulder county-owned property

³ Currently located at the city Municipal Service Center

⁴ Discussions are underway with Boulder County to begin to share operating costs

⁵ Does not include material from the residential curbside compost program implemented in 2009.

⁶ These facilities are still being explored.