Div.: Ctrm.:

ORDER 2002- 4 IN RE ADDRESSES AND PHONE NUMBERS

It is the responsibility of each defendant to provide the Court with his/her current mailing address and telephone number(s). To ensure compliance with this obligation, the Court issues this Order, which becomes effective on January 1, 2002.

If a defendant's mailing address or telephone number(s) change, the defendant shall immediately provide the new mailing address or telephone number(s) to the Court in writing. A defendant's failure to provide current address and / or phone number information may create a situation in which the defendant does not receive notice of a court date which, in turn, may result in the issuance of a warrant for the defendant's arrest.

If the Court is unable to contact a defendant by mail or telephone, the Court will NOT send mail to the defendant c/o general delivery, unless the defendant has notified the Court in writing or on the record that he/she receives mail via general delivery at a specific Post Office.

Dated this 18th day of December, 2001.

MARK S. COHEN, Municipal Judge

LINDA P. COOKE, Municipal Judge
