

Appendix C

Comparison to Other Community Approaches to Trash Storage

	Boulder, CO	N. Shore Vancouver, BC	Durango, CO	Aspen, CO	Vail, CO
Population	103,000	120,000	16,000	6,000	5,000
No. of Reported Sightings	82 (2009)	591 (2005)	627 (2009)	713 (2009)	222 (2009)
Trash storage law updated	2008	1997	2010	2010	2007
Trash storage requirements	Trash, recyclables and compostables must be stored in a manner so that their contents cannot be scattered by animals and must be set out on trash day between 5:00 am and 9:00 pm (except alleys).	Garbage must be safely stored so that it is not accessible to wildlife. Garbage can only be put curbside on trash day, after 5:30 am.	If trash is confirmed to be scattered by wildlife, then a bear resistant waste container is required and restrictions are placed on the time when containers may be left out (container is not locked when put out for trash pick up).	Trash placed outside must be wildlife-resistant or wildlife-proof and may only be on curb between 6 am and 7 pm on trash pickup day. Refuse container client identification required	Trash (if it contains any attractants) must be in wildlife-resistant or wildlife-proof trash can. May only be on curb between 6 am and 7pm on trash pickup day.